

A FULL LINE

—of—

Lenten Goods

—at—

Somers Bros.

mar3d

Geo. R. Harris, M. D.
Physician
and Surgeon

With O. F. HARRIS, 31 B'dway.
Office hours—8 to 10 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m.
feb12d

The Quality

of every Drug, Chemical or Medicine in our store
is guaranteed.
Purity is always found here.
Let us fill your prescription.

DUNN'S PHARMACY,
50 Main Street.
mar3d

NURSES

REGISTER.
NO CHARGES.

WILEY & JONES,
149 Main Street.
mar3d

Chiropody, Manicuring,
Shampooing

Face and Scalp Massage.
HAIR GOODS OF ALL KINDS.
Toilet Requisites.

Fannie M. Gibson
Room 36, Central Building.
Evenings and Sunday by Appointment.
Tel. 655.
feb12d

Fine Tailoring
SWANN'S,
Shetucket St., opp. First Nat. Bank.
dec28d

ONCE MORE
reminding you that we are offering Suits or Overcoats made to order at rock bottom prices that can't be beat. Step in and let us prove it to you.

THE N. JOHNSON CO.,
Merchant Tailors, 33 Broadway.

FIRE INSURANCE

OFFICE OF
John F. Parker

IS NOW OPEN AND
READY FOR BUSINESS

N. S. GILBERT & SONS,
SECOND FLOOR,
141 Main Street
TELEPHONE 894.

ON THE FENCE.
If you are in a state of indecision as to where to get your supplies of grain and feed for your horses, cows, pigs, poultry, don't hesitate long—come here. This broad statement we have no hesitancy in making. We can furnish all sorts of grain, feed, hay and the like to your best advantage. We hesitate a trial order.

CHARLES SLOSBERG,
Cove Street (West Side), Norwich, Ct.
feb12d

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, March 3, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

Supper tonight at Trinity M. E. church, 8 p.m.—adv.

Today (Wednesday) Friday and Saturday are Easter days in the Catholic church.

Some farmers say if the weather continues mild for a week, they will begin plowing.

By March 31 the length of the day will have increased to twelve hours and forty minutes.

The moon will be full next Saturday evening and the new moon comes the evening of the 21st.

Somerset lodge works the Fellowship degree this evening—adv.

The conference of the Catholic pastors of the diocese was held Tuesday at the cathedral, Hartford.

Sap is flowing upward in the maple trees, and some people who have sugar maples have tapped them already.

Food sale and regular church supper at First Baptist church today (Wed.). Supper at 6.15. 15 cents—adv.

Get the report of the commission on Tuberculosis at The Bulletin business office. They are free to all callers.

The state board of education has issued document No. 229, a catalogue of the state normal training school at New Haven.

The Connecticut Young People's Christian union of the Universalist church will hold its state convention in Stafford April 2 and 3.

Some of the older local historians recalled the fact that Texas was annexed to the United States just sixty-four years ago Monday.

Most of the April blooming bulbs will show their flowers in March this year if the temperature does not take a sudden and severe drop.

The steamer Mohawk of the Central Vermont line brought from New York on Monday a cable four miles long, for the life saving station at Fishers Island.

Friends of Mrs. Roosevelt presented her a diamond necklace Monday. Miss May Williams, daughter of the late C. A. Williams of New London, Conn., acted as treasurer of the fund.

Among school children in several Connecticut towns pink eye is prevalent, occurring sometimes in connection with the measles and sometimes distinct from any other malady.

The Maritime Magazine for March has upon its front cover a pretty poem entitled "My Dream," by John Ireland of Norwich, and the editor feels glad to add his name to the list of writers.

It is stated by New London exchanges that Robert B. Chappell and family moved Monday from the Mohican apartments to the W. & C. Chappell house on Channing street, New London.

The agitation against scraping the bark off elm to keep the beetles from injuring them, has resulted in a statement from Prof. W. E. Britton, state entomologist, that it is very injurious to the trees and should not be allowed.

Very Low Colonist Rates via Nickel Plate Road until April 30th, to California, Washington, Oregon and the far West. Tourist sleepers from New England. Write L. P. Burgess, N. E. P. A., 215 Old South Bldg., Boston, Mass.—adv.

Rev. Sherrod Soule, who has resigned as pastor of the Naugatuck Congregational church, to become the superintendent and executive head of the Connecticut Missionary society, with headquarters in the Congregational house, Hartford.

A bill of interest to sportsmen, introduced at this session of the legislature, is house bill 437—making close season for quail, woodcock, partridge or ruffed grouse, Kinglet, Chinese and English pheasants, December 15 to October 15, both inclusive.

Automobiles in this city and vicinity were invited to attend the hearing before the legislative committee on roads, bridges and rivers, today, Wednesday and Thursday at Hartford, when most of the automobile bills before the general assembly will be taken up.

The tags for the new dog year, which begins April 1, are being sent to town clerks. The tags this year are octagonal in shape and will be easily distinguished from those issued the past year, which are triangular. Each one is numbered and stamped with the name of the town or city.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

The state treasurer is engaged in making out the rebates for loss of dividends to religious, educational and benevolent associations, caused by the taxing of banks and insurance companies' stocks. Last year 100 different societies took advantage of this rebate, $3,355.13 being refunded to them.

That the automobile is not displacing the horse in Connecticut is evident from the fact that there are more horses in the state this year than there were last year. The total number on January 1 is placed at 61,090, valued at $7,600,000. The average price per head was $123, as compared with $118 in 1908 and an average for ten years past of $91.65.

Low Colonist Rates Pacific Coast during March and April.—One-way tickets for sale daily via the Chicago, Union Pacific and North Western line, $49.45 to $144.50 from Boston. Correspondingly low rates from all points. Daily and personally conducted tours in tourist sleeping cars. Choice of routes. For particulars and full information, address S. A. Hutchinson, Mer. Tourist Dept., 300 Washington St., Boston, Mass.—adv.

PERSONAL.

C. H. Nickerson is in Boston and New York for a few days.

Constable George H. Stanton was in Worcester Monday on a business trip.

Misses Blossom and Annie F. Cunningham, waitresses of New London friends on Sunday.

Lewis Dunning of Norwich, who has been the guest of friends in Meriden, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Lahn, who were married here Sunday evening, left Tuesday by the boat train for New York, where they will reside.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. John W. Gallup.
The death of Mrs. John W. Gallup occurred at her home, No. 3 Pembroke street, at 4.30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Gallup, widow of John W. Gallup, was born in Preston, City, March 26, 1824. Her father's name was Maudslayi T. Richards, and her mother's maiden name Polly Tyler. She was one of a family of eight children. Mrs. Gallup was a kind, sympathetic neighbor and a loving mother in her family, and was always deeply interested in religious work, and at the time of her death was one of the oldest members of the Baptist church at Preston City. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lydia Torrance and Mrs. Harriet E. Wilbur of White Plains, N. Y., and by four children, Arthur T. Gallup of Plainfield, N. J., Mrs. H. Jane May, Charles E. Gallup, Elizabeth T. Gallup of this city, and by two grandchildren, Carlos Cook Gallup of Plainfield, N. J., and Marguerite Beatrice Gallup of this city.

Mrs. E. Hutchinson.
Through a letter received on March 1st by Captain C. T. Potter comes the information that Mrs. E. Hutchinson died at the island of St. Croix on Feb. 18th. She and two children, girls, left one and a half years ago from Newport, R. I., to go with her husband, who was on a missionary under the Bible Home and Foreign Missionary society to preach the gospel of Christ in the West Indies. They were stationed at a time at St. Kitts, where the Norwich Holiness Mission has a mission station, and a little while ago went to St. John, Barbados, where Mr. Hutchinson died. The following letter will be read with interest by their many friends:

Christianized, St. Croix, D. W. I., Feb. 25th, 1909.

Dear Bro. Potter—At 4.30 p. m. Feb. 16th my dear, precious and faithful wife, Elizabeth, went home to be with Him, whom having not seen she loved, and now no longer by faith, but in His very presence, is rejoicing with joy unspeakable and full of glory.

He is very real and precious and is truly the comforter. The two dear girls have been such blessings, and the saints have left nothing undone that His tender love and sympathy could suggest, taking all the care and burden and a constant volume of prayer, so I can say "Sorrowing yet rejoicing in Him." She was in her ordinary health until Saturday morning, Feb. 13th, when she took a chill, followed by fever, dysentery and vomiting, which affected the heart. She was faithful unto death and through His wonderful grace and by His precious blood is now rejoicing with Him. Your brother, comforted by the Holy Ghost.

DAVID J. HUTCHINSON.

Mrs. Thomas Dodd.
Tuesday morning at 1.30 o'clock the death of Mrs. Thomas Dodd occurred at her home, No. 202 Boswell avenue. Mrs. Dodd's death was entirely unexpected. She had been in poor health, although she had suffered from a heart affection. Death was caused by heart disease, she being conscious to the last, passing peacefully away.

Mrs. Dodd was born in Ireland, her maiden name being Catherine Doyle. In 1855 she came to this country by ship with her parents and since that time has been a resident of Norwich. She married Thomas Dodd, the ceremony being performed in the Methodist church in April, 1861, by Rev. Daniel Kelly. Mrs. Dodd was devoted to her family and her home was her chief joy. She had many friends who sincerely regret her death.

Mrs. Dodd is survived by her husband, Mr. Dodd, and four sons—Mr. Riley, of South street, and four sons—John of New York, Thomas J. of James and Mary Bowler, died three years ago.

George W. Marlon.
The death of George W. Marlon occurred at his home, No. 131 Worcester street, Monday evening at the age of 85. Mr. Marlon was for many years a resident of Greenfield, having been a machinist while his health permitted. He was born in Preston Nov. 29, 1823, and there passed his early days. He was well known among the older residents as an upright and industrious citizen. His wife died several years ago.

Mr. Marlon is survived by three daughters—Mrs. Frank P. Hotchkiss and Mrs. F. M. Foylston of Norwich, N. Y., and one son, Frederick W. Marlon of this city.

Mrs. Lucy A. Fitch.
Mrs. Lucy A. Fitch, widow of Captain William Fitch of Uncolville, died at the home of her son, the late James Fitch, in New York, on Feb. 27th, 1909, at the age of 90 years.

Groton—The barge Carlos French, which sank on Monday, Feb. 14, with 988 tons of coal, just inside of Sarah's ledge off the mouth of the harbor, will probably be raised by the T. A. Scott Co. within a few days.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

The tags for the new dog year, which begins April 1, are being sent to town clerks. The tags this year are octagonal in shape and will be easily distinguished from those issued the past year, which are triangular. Each one is numbered and stamped with the name of the town or city.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

The tags for the new dog year, which begins April 1, are being sent to town clerks. The tags this year are octagonal in shape and will be easily distinguished from those issued the past year, which are triangular. Each one is numbered and stamped with the name of the town or city.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

The tags for the new dog year, which begins April 1, are being sent to town clerks. The tags this year are octagonal in shape and will be easily distinguished from those issued the past year, which are triangular. Each one is numbered and stamped with the name of the town or city.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

The tags for the new dog year, which begins April 1, are being sent to town clerks. The tags this year are octagonal in shape and will be easily distinguished from those issued the past year, which are triangular. Each one is numbered and stamped with the name of the town or city.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

The tags for the new dog year, which begins April 1, are being sent to town clerks. The tags this year are octagonal in shape and will be easily distinguished from those issued the past year, which are triangular. Each one is numbered and stamped with the name of the town or city.

Waterbury papers note that E. Howard Adams, a carpenter, has fitted himself to preach and was heard at the Second Baptist church Sunday. He will be ordained this week and next Sunday will begin his pastorate at the North Stonington Baptist church, to which he has accepted a call.

POSTAL CLERKS STATE CONVENTION

Local Branch May Invite it Here Next Year—Electric Clock Presented Mayor W. A. Wells.

Major William A. Wells, secretary and treasurer of the local branch of the postal clerks' association since 1891, was completely taken by surprise Tuesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the branch at the postoffice, which was held at 8 o'clock.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Under of their kindly feelings and appreciation of his services. Major Wells was taken entirely unawares, but responded fittingly in receiving the present, which he will value so highly.

The business meeting of the branch, which is No. 20, was presided over by its president, John W. Haselden. The principal matter before it was the consideration of arranging to hold the next state convention in this city. This is always held on Washington's birthday, and the date is still open for 1910, no city having been assigned to receive the convention. The local branch proposed of the matter by appointing a committee to consider the advisability of inviting the convention here, and the committee will investigate the matter and report later.

Incidents in Society

Dr. George D. Howland is spending a few days in Hartford and New York.

Mrs. Charles A. Burnham is with Mrs. James Kelley of Norwich town for a time.

The Reading class of sixteen met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frederic T. Sayles of Washington street.

MOTION LIST BUSINESS
IN NORWICH MONDAY.
Cases Will Be Assigned for Jury Trial—Criminal Cases for the 9th.

At the motion list hearing in Norwich Monday, March 8th, at 2 p. m., there will be a bar meeting for the assignment of jury cases for trial beginning Tuesday, March 16th, at New London, to follow the business of the criminal court of common pleas, which comes in at New London Tuesday, March 9th, at 10 a. m., with a jury.

The prosecuting attorney of the criminal court of common pleas will be at the clerk's office here on Friday, March 5th, at 10.30 a. m., for the purpose of arranging for the business of the session of the criminal court of common pleas.

All cases not arranged on or before that date will be considered assigned for trial without further notice.

STUBBORN CHIMNEY FIRE.
Chemical company, No. 2, puts out blaze at 271 West Main Street.

Chemical company, No. 2, from the West Side station, had a call Monday night by a fire alarm from the house at 271 West Main street, owned by Miss Ann E. Frink, who occupies the tenement on the main floor. It was a chimney fire, and the two smoke tanks were used. The fire extended through the length of the chimney, which had angles for the firemen to fight against. Assistant Chief Brown was in charge.

Oakdale Postmaster.
The United States civil service commission announces that on Saturday, March 27, 1909, an examination will be held at Montville, Conn., for the position of fourth class postmaster of Class B at Oakdale, Conn. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $461 for the fiscal year.

Application forms and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the Oakdale postoffice or from the United States civil service commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the commission in Washington within seven days before the date of the examination, otherwise it may be impracticable to examine the applicants.

Rapped New London Police.
Dr. James Wilson Bixler in the Second Congregational church, had New London Sunday night said some harsh things about the New London police. Some of those things were:

"We have officers on our constabulary of police right here in our city who are laboring under a strange impression. You will have to take these men by the arm and drag them face to face with evidence of lawlessness and disorder and then you will have to actually argue with them to convince them that what they see is crime. If you want the proof of what I say to you to come to me and I will give you plenty of proof."

CASTORIA.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

Attention Scotchmen and those of Scottish Descent.
Past Chief David Lamond and Chief John Rankin will be in Norwich Thursday, March 4th, at the home of Mr. Duff, 2 Hickory street, 8 p. m. Would be pleased to meet many Scotchmen as possible, between the ages 18-45, for the purpose of starting a branch of the Order of the Scottish Clan. Come and be a charter member at small cost.

Dinner at the Haile Club
THIS EVENING
From 6 to 8 O'clock.

MENU.
POTAGE A LOIGNON
FISH SOUFFLE
ROAST CHICKEN
SALAD
ICE CREAM
CAKE
COFFEE

Price of Dinner, 35 Cents.
Club members may invite gentlemen friends to Wednesday evening dinner. It is well to telephone in advance for places, as space in Restaurant is limited.

REVOLVING DOOR
At New Meriden Post Office Proves a Failure.

The revolving door at the entrance of the new Meriden post office, which was the cause of much of the delay in getting into the new building and which has been rejected by the government, broke down Sunday evening and will be taken down at once. The door has been weak and unstable from the first and its breakdown after two or three days' use proves that the inventor or who condemned it knew his business.

Temporary folding doors will be installed as soon as possible and not then it is probable that the outside doors only will be closed